

50th Anniversary

9th September 1970 at the Lake Hotel was the first session of bridge for players, many who had never played bridge. It was an ordeal.

For us – 4 children under 3 were fed, bathed and in bed before 7pm, so we could venture out and leave our husbands in charge.

This was the start of an enjoyable journey that has lasted 50 years and hopefully plenty more.

Nicola and Frances